Digitalization in Social work with vulnerable citizens.

- Digitalization and social work - where are we?
- Do we need increased understanding of technology and digital innovation within social work?
- Should we take a constructive and critical approach to the digital development and phenomena within the social field, including the use of algorithms and artificial intelligence?
- How does digitalization effect the dialogue, communication, trust etc between social worker and clients?
- How can social work benefit from the digital development?
- How do you do it?
- How do we prepare the students for a social work reality where digital technologies and algorithms are an integral part of social worker work?
